HONGKONG, MONDAY, JUNE 14, 1880. Most of our readers who take an interest in American political affairs have been anxiously looking for a telegram which would convey the result of the Republican nomination for the Presidency, made at the Chicago Convention Per Jamon and Moray, at 230 p.m., on on the 2nd instant. No news reached the public until to-day, when, in answer to a private telegram, the following was received and kindly placed at our disposal :- "The Republican Convention have chosen Garfield re their candidate." The great importance attached to this announcement is this: that the candidate nominated by the Republican Convention may safely be accepted as the President-elect of the United States for the next term of three years. Whether General Grant has declined to stand, or whether the Republican party felt itself safer to evade the question of electing a great man too often (however popular that man might be), cannot be definitely stated. At all events, we have every reason to believe that in nominating General James A. Garfield, of Ohio, to this lofty position, the Convention have shown a wise discretion. The President-elect is at present the leader of the Republican party in the Lower House of Congress, and was elected last winter to succeed Senstor. Thurman, whose term expires on 4th March 1881. He is better known to Americans than he is to outsiders; but from all we can gather he has been selected more for his real ability and sentiment of the hour or any extreme party tactics. He is described as one of the most accomplished public men in the States, and one who holds a very high position in the estimation of all good, loyal Americans. A staunch upholder of the Union, he left his profession as a lawyer at the outbreak of the War, and having raised a regiment of his own, he soon by dint of hard fighting won distinction in the field. Since that time he has gained the higher distinction of universal esteem and even those Americans who had fondly hoped to see General Grant again at the head of official affairs, admit that General Garfield is the next best man for the post.

There is, besides, no other man in existence who has done more for the reigning Tartar dynasty of Tsing than Colonel Gordon; for, however much may be said for the efforts of the native Imperialist leaders, the successful issue of the prolonged struggle against the Taiping power was mainly due to the great abilities and personal influence of Major Gordon. That he has started for China. therefore, so soon after we hear of his refusal of office in India, is a very interesting item of intelligence. Gordon Pashs has for many years been following the natural bent of his genius for organization and adventurous life near the Equitorial Lakes of Africa, and ac, as the residence of Miss Lamb (by latterly as Clovernor, under the Khedive, or the whole of the Soudant of 18 necessor to specially along the position service along the position service according to the complete thems. Thayetniyo, May 25 .- An important affray s reported from Simboungway, a village about four miles above the frontier and on the left bank of the river. Three men dressed as bocongees, with 25 followers, crossed into Burmese territory and were challenged by the authorities there; they declared that the men were only with them to carry baggage and the party was then allowed to pass. They entered Myoungbinths, small village close by, where two of the hoongess appounced themselves respectively as the Nyoung Yan and Myoung)ke, Princes on their way to Mandalay to wrest the throne of their father from King Theebaw, and demanded support in their enterprise. There appears to have been some resistance at first, and the thoogyee is reported to have been killed, but a number believed their story, and with their party increased to about fifty men, armed with bludgeons, they proceeded to Simboungway, where they arrived yesterday and repeated the same tactics. The Woon here, however, seems to have discredited their statements, refused assistance and mustered the forces at his command. A fight then took place, in which the Woon's men were defeated and himself and several others killed. The village, which is a large one, was then set on fire and almost destroyed, after which the victors continned their march. The inhabitants of course fled, and great excitement prevails in the district, from which people in great numbers are crossing into British territory for safety.

June 12. Though the report of an increase in the lekin tax has not been confirmed, the market for Bengal Opium has been somewhat heavy throughout the past fortnight. Holders of drug, on the other hand, have been more willing to effect a reduction of stocks, which has naturally tended to weaken the rates. A fair business has. however, passed in New Patna and Benares: but for Old Patna there has been hardly any demand, though the stock of it is concentrated. The present quotations are

2642 to $645 for New Patna, 2640 for

Old; and $595 to $597; for Benares. The receipts for the months, so far, shew an aggregate of 8,704 chests, against 8,225 chests at the corresponding period last year. During the interval some 900 chests have been taken by the local consumers, against 800 chests at the corresponding interval last year, This, with the exportations, leaves the available supply computed at 8,600 chests, against 2,600 chests at the corresponding period last year. Of this last quantity 1,000 chests were Benares, of which kind the present stock comprises a similar quantity.

THE OHINA REVIEW.

THE widely-expressed regret at the discontinuance of Notes & Queries on China and Japan, has induced the publishers of this journal to issue a publication similar in object and style, but slightly modified in cortain details.

THE CHINA REVIEW, or Notes and Queries on the Far East, is issued at intervals of two months, each number containing about 60 octavo pages, occasionally illustrated with lithographs, photographs, woodcuts, &c., should the papers published demand, and the circulation justify, such extra matter. The subscription is fixed at $6.50 postage paid, per annum, payable by non-residents in Hongkong half-yearly in advance. The publication includes papers original and selected upon the Arts and Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Manners and Customs, Natural History, Religion, &c., &c., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, the Eastern Archipelego and the "Far East" generally. A more detailed list of subjects upon which contributions are especially invited is incorporated with each number. Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, French, German, Spanish, Italian or Portuguese, are admissible. Endeavours are nade to present a resumé in each number of the contents of the most recent works bearing on Chinese matters. Great attention is also paid to the Review department. Notes and Replies are classified together as "Notes" (head references being given, when furnished, to provious Notes or Queries), as are also those queries which though asking for information, furnish new or unpublished details concerning the matter in hand. It is desirable to make the Queries proper as brief and as much to Sailors' Home, West Point. the point as possible.

The China Review for July and August, 1875, is at hand. It says that forty-two easays were sent in to compete for the best paper on the advantages of Christianity for the development of a State. All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and enterprising Review. It is a sixty paged, bi-monthly, reportory of what scholars are ascertaining about China. The lecture on Chinese Poetry in this volume is alone worth the price of the Review. Address China Keview, Hongkong.-Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.)

Trubner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review :- "This is the title of a publication, the first number of which has lately reached us from Hongkong, where it has been set on foot as in some respects a continuation of Notes and Oueries on China and Japan, the extinction of which useful serial a year or two ago has been much regretted in Europe as well as in China. The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the Road. neighbouring countries, somewhat similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, aptiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable: and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body, among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated, and who are severally represented in the first number of the lieview by papers highly creditable to their respective authors. In a paper on Dr. Legge's She King, by the Rev. E. J. Eitel, to which the place of honour is deservedly given, an excellent summary is presented of the chronological problems and arguments involved in connexion with this important work. Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese poet-statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowrs, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that "Notes" and "Queries" are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary zeal to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predecessor in the field, and that the China Review may receive the support necessary to insure its continuance. The publication is intended to appear every two months, and will form a substantial octavo magazine.

This paper is now issued every The subscription is fixed at Four Dollars per annum delivered in Hongkong, or Seven Dollars Fifty Cents including postage to Coast ports.

It is the first Chinese Newspaper ever issued under purely native direction. The chief support of the paper is of course derived from the native community, amongst whom also are to be found the guarantors and securities necessary to place it on a business andlegal footing.

The projectors, basing their estimates upon the most reliable information from the various Ports in China and Japan, from Australia, California, Singapore, Penaug, Saigon, and other places frequented by the Chinese, - consider themselves justified in guaranteeing an ultimate circulation of Between 8,000 and 4,000 copies. The advantages offered to advertisers are therefore unusually great, and the foreign community generally will find it to their interest to avail themselves of

The field open to a paper of this description-conducted by native efforts, but progressive and anti-obstructive in tonein almost limitless. It on the one hand commands Chinese belief and interest while on the other deserves every aid that can be given to it by foreigners. Like English journals it contains Editorials. with Local, Shipping, and Commercial News and Advertisements.
